Nearly two years after the ordination of Fr Matthew Jolley at St Mary's, what a blessing to have another two priests ordained by Archbishop McMahon. We thank all of you who contributed to this event in one way or another: to clean the church; provide accommodation for 35 clergy and religious; rehearse and perform music at the ceremonies; do the flowers; tidy up the garden; prepare tables; bring food, drink and gazebos; coordinate the parking and security, etc... And it is a great joy to have so many priests and seminarians present here this weekend.

We will have a bring-and-share picnic lunch after the 11am Mass, Sunday, with First Blessing by Fr Stewart for those who didn't receive it yesterday.

Make sure to resolve to gain the Plenary Indulgence granted when attending the First Mass this Sunday morning (usual conditions: state of grace and / or Confession in the past or next fortnight; Eucharistic Communion today; any prayer to the intentions of the Holy Father Pope Francis – apply the indulgence to your soul or someone else's.)

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Please come this afternoon (Sunday 18 June) to give thanks to God at the Corpus Christi Procession, led by newly ordained Fr Alex Stewart, FSSP. We meet at 3pm inside St Mary's, and end at 4pm at St Alban's. Please bring flower petals in baskets to spread before the Blessed Sacrament. Please make sure to keep to the walkways at all time, and follow the instruction while crossing Academy Street (the crossing on our itinerary).

Congratulations to three of the twelve founders of the FSSP on the anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood: On 28 June Fr Josef Meinrad Bisig, the Archbishop's Assistant Priest at yesterday's ordinations, will have served 40 years as a priest; Fr Patrick du Faÿ, Rector of the Seminary in Wigratzbad, 30 years; Fr Nikolaus Gorges, from Germany, 30 years. May the new priests Frs Sanetra and Stewart follow them in many decades of service!

Holy Communion Reminder:

- To receive Holy Communion, one must be 1) a Roman Catholic 2) in state of grace (no grave sin unabsolved on one's conscience) and 3) have fasted for at least one hour.
- In the traditional Latin rite used at St Mary's, Holy Communion is received kneeling (if one can), and in any case on the tongue: thank you very much in advance.
- Please use the entire width of the Communion rail, from one wall of the church all the way to the opposite wall, avoiding any gaps. This will make distribution quicker. Thank you.
